A Hammerless Remington Double-Barrel Shotgun for $25; true, lasting and light.

FRANK OWENS
HARDWARE CO.

The Man Behind the Shears

On the skill and artistic taste of the designer—"The Man Behind the Shears"—entirely depends your satisfaction in the coat you buy. From the very home of skillful designing and expert coat making are the hand-some "Wooltex" garments we are showing. Have so many of them. Every season we've brought you a bigger and better stock but this time we've eclipsed all our past records. We've all the newest things—Monday an exquisite line of Raglians arrived. Nearly every day sees some attractive addition. All lengths and sizes, of course all prices from $5 to $25.

EMBROIDERIES!

5,000 yards of the daintiest Embroidery on Calico, Nainsook and Swiss. The King size embroidery is $1.00 with full 40c a yard at 18c a yard. Also lots at 5c, 9c, 12½c, 15c. Beautiful little edges and insertions in dainty designs. Wide open work patterns for underskirts, 12-inch embroideries with lace insertions for underwear and children's dresses, 25c, 30c. A little out of season for embroideries. We know it and that is the reason for the price. Take our word—any of these embroideries are cheap enough to buy now and use as needed arise.

Unbleached Canton Flannel, 8½c a Yard.

Every year we place large orders for this excellent Unbleached Canton Flannel with the manufacturers and every year we sell it to customers to whom the brand "E. T. B." is as well and as favorably known as the brands of famous muslins are. And with reason—for it is a quality the equal of which regularly sell elsewhere at a yard, while "E. T. B." Canton Flannel is but 8½c a 12 yards for a dollar.

Handkerchiefs!

Remember Linen is twice as strong as cotton, four times as absorbent, four times as costly for a handkerchief—the cheapest thing on earth. Never thought you could buy much of a linen handkerchief for 5c. See what we're selling for that price—you'll buy.

Everybody is buying Walking Skirts. Easier than anything else to walk in. Conducive to health as well as comfort because they keep dry and so prevent colds. Best for a dozen reasons. 3 colors—black, oxford, castor. 3 prices—$5, $5.75, $6.50. All the skirts flare at the bottom and fit snug around the hips. Great diversity in stitching.

D. HUNT & SON.

THE BEE HIVE

We are too busy to make a new price for each customer; one does for everybody.

NO ADMITTANCE!

Don't trade at our store if you are satisfied with paying more than you have to. We are after the thousands of women who aren't—who want the most their money will buy, and we are after them as hard as we know how. TRASH? OH, NO! Against such stuff we post the sign "NO ADMITTANCE." THIS IS THE STORE OF GREATEST ECONOMIES. We couldn't expect nor deserve your patronage by merely doing as well as other stores. WE MUST DO BETTER, and we do. We are proving our right to your trade every day by offering you NEW, SEASONABLE merchandise for very much less than any other store asks for EQUAL QUALITY. It's our ambition to be LEAST for BEST. Not in a line or two, but through the entire store, in every department here, and the constantly increasing business serves as an eloquent evidence that our efforts are meeting success.

A WORD

About our 25c Ladies' Hose. We are determined to make this Hose popular, and if you will compare our 25c Hose with those selling by other houses at 35c and 50c you will see that we have spared no efforts to popularize it. The fact is, on this Hose we are more after your good will than cash.

P.—S.—We are sold out of "Graustark," the new book, but will have a new shipment early next week. Leave your orders now.

The Christmas number of The Delineator is in. December Fashion Sheets free.

ANOTHER WORD.

Something about a trade winner. It's our 25c Ladies' Vests and Pants.

We can't tell you so much about them, but if you will come and look—"and seeing is believing"—you won't wonder why we order 1,000 garments of this one number at a time.

RATHBUN'S CRIME.

He Makes a Partial Confession of His Scheme to Defraud an Insurance Company.

THE DEAD BODY IS FULLY IDENTIFIED.

It Was that of Charles Goodman, of Evansville, Ind., Instead of W. L. Ten Eyke.

Rathbun Says That He Did Not Give His the Poison Which Ended His Life, But That He Intended to Kill Him.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Newell C. Rathbun, who, according to the police, has confessed that he planned to defraud an insurance company out of $4,000 by pretending that a corpse shipped to Little Rock, Ark., was ever killed, has now identified the man to the authorities, that the man who accompanied him to the hotel in Jeffersonville, Ind., and was found dead the next day, was Charles Goodman, who is said to have come from Evansville, Ind.

Rathbun made the following statement to Chief of Detectives Sullivan: "I admit everything except that I killed Goodman. I meant to kill him, and kept him drunk for the purpose, but he died of alcoholism, and I was not forced to make way with him. My story about an accomplice named Eddie is true, but Eddie is dead, and alone and with out a confederate."

It is said that Goodman, who was of a roving nature, came to this city on October 29 and took up quarters at the Salvation Army. He reportedly left the clerk, J. C. Pelton, that he did not have any money and did not know how he would get out of the city.

Mr. Pelton says that about noon last Wednesday Goodman entered the hotel and remarked that he had "just met an easy mark," who had given him a quarter and had given an engagement with him at 7 o'clock tonight, and he is going to show me how to make some money," continued Goodman.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Pelton says he saw Goodman meet a man about whom Pelton had inquisitively in front of the hotel. Detective Rathbun followed the clue and found that the two men who answer the descriptions of Rathbun and Goodman appeared in the Falls City hotel in Jeffersonville about 8 o'clock. Rathbun and Goodman, and they were assigned to different rooms.

In about an half hour they appeared in the office and the hotel clerk says the man who Rathbun said was Ten Eyke had on a different coat and vest than when he went to the room. He also added a collar and necktie to his coat, two left the hotel, saying they would return.

According to Pelton's story, Goodman returned to the Salvation Army hotel shortly after 9 o'clock with a new coat and vest on and also a collar and tie. Pelton also says he joked him about the change of appearance, and Goodman said he had got the clothes from "the mark" he had met in the morning. Goodman told Pelton to check him off, as he was going to spend the night in Indiana with him. Now, Goodman went out, showing him his coat and vest, and had not been seen at the hotel since.

The Jeffersonville coroner has identified a pair of trousers found in Rathbun's grip as being a suit the coat and vest of which were on the corpse found at the Falls City hotel.

A special train from Louisville says: "Charles Goodman is little known here. About a year ago he induced Jake Schneider, 16 years old, to accompany him on a tramp. They were gone some months and then returned here. Goodman got drunk, fought with others, and was sent to jail. After his release he was heard of him till last Friday, when Schneider got a letter from him at Louisville, asking the boy to go on the road with him."

The Louisville Post would like to learn something about the whereabouts and former life of Rathbun. They are not even sure that the prisoner's name is Rathbun. It is believed his home is in Detroit. The next steps in the case will be to attempt to settle Rathbun's identity, to find out what was in the good man, when the poison was used, whether any poison was used, and whether any arrests yet remain to be made in the case.

Something About Rathbun.

Plattsburgh, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Newell C. Rathbun, who is in custody at Louisville, Ky., in connection with an alleged plot to poison him, was enlisted in the United States army at Detroit, Mich., February 1, 1901, and joined Company K, 27th Infantry, here September 17, 1901, and deserted October 7. He was born at Oswego, N. Y., on August 28, 1879, and a printer, Frederick R. Linscott, of Fort McPherson, Ga., May 9, 1901, and joined his regiment here in September. He deserted September 24. He was born at Dover, N. J., 25 years old, and is a bookkeeper. His comrades say he has a wife at Plattsburgh, N. Y. He gave the name of Joel Culman, of Trenton, N. J., as that of his nearest relative.

CAPTAIN KIDD'S LETTER.

The Noted Pirate Tells of Hidden Store to a Friend, Giving Location of Booty.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 13.—A letter 200 years old, from Capt. Kidd, the notorious pirate chief, to John Bailey, Esq., of New York, which, from evidence contained in it, is believed to be genuine, has been sold, with the manuscript on an heirloom. It has been deposited for safekeeping, with other papers, in the office of the record commissioner of this city.

The letter is the property of Edward Field, clerk of the municipal court of Providence, and is a descendant of the Warren family, which was among the first to settle in what is now the town of Warwick. It was found among family papers.

Apparently the communication was written after the capture of Capt. Kidd, at Boston, 1700-01, and it says:

"For fear we are in a bad situation, we are taken for pirates, and you must come to Boston as soon as you get this; there is no one I can depend upon. If I do not see you, I will tell you where my money is buried on the Island, in Boston harbor, on the — Island in two chests, containing from £15,000 sterling to £20,000 sterling in money, jewels and diamonds. They are buried about four feet deep, with a stone on them and a pile of stones near by. There is no one that knows where it is but it is now lying."

"It is about — up the hillside. Don't fail to come to me as soon as you get this. I am gone to England where there as soon as possible. See me tell you where the treasure was buried, and where the chest is buried."

The letter contains much more matter and refers to many incidents which have been found to be historically accurate, which would be told exactly where the treasure was buried, and where the chest is buried, taken by crosses. It is considered likely that along with the letter went another writing in which was given the key to the outlined portions.

Solney Due McKinney.

SAVED FROM THE GALLows.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 13.—Allee Nesbener, died in 1900 for murder, was saved from the gallows by a decision of the supreme court, which held that there was no ground for conviction. She had been convicted and sentenced to death for poisoning her husband, a Burlington housekeeper, at Burlington, Mo., in July, 1900. Two of Mrs. Nesbener's children had died suddenly, and the fact that all three had been insured, that Mrs. Nesbener objected to a post mortem examination, and the finding of a powder in the vault were strong factors in her conviction. Through her trial and imprisonment the prisoner had been saved by her baby constantly with her.

THE LEDGER CODE.

White streamer—FIRE;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
Black above—WILL WINNER grows
Red—LOSS—CROSS—No change will be.
If Black's not shown no change will see.
The above forecasts are made for a period of forty-eight hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow eve-

The increase in the N. and E. earnings for the present fiscal year has passed the million dollar mark.

On account of Mr. W. B. Carpenter's continued ill health, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will leave Cincinnati in a few days to spend the winter in the South.

In the Bourbon Circuit Court Emily E. Collins has brought suit for divorce against her husband, William Albert Collins. They are an aged couple and have thirteen children.

The Fiscal Court

An adjourned session of the Mason Fiscal Court was held yesterday, Judge Newell presiding.

Hon. E. L. Worthington and L. W. Robertson were employed to negotiate a sale of the county's stock in the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad, to be paid off in six years.

The matter of granting the right of way along the pikes for telephone lines to be erected by the Maysville Telephone Company came up, and after much discussion action was deferred until this morning.

The J. M. Grubbs has given up the Gallop-Huntington trade.

There is a considerable rise in the rivers—the bottom coming to where the top ought to be.

The stemwinders are throwing so much gravel on their roofs that passengers cannot sleep.

The Coalhine is loading its towboats at Pittsburgh with dry stores to prepare them for the first rise.

The Cando has been chartered for another trade outside the Chillicothe-Cincinnati run, and as soon as the Hough Gards arrive to take her place she will leave.

During the season 1899 there was no coalboat rise in the Ohio river from March until December 13. There were barge rises at intermediate times, but little coal was shipped.

Repairs are being made to the government locks on Green river. It is expected they will be completed this week. Valley View is at present the head of navigation on the Kentucky river.

The safe of the towboat Pacific, that sank at Davis Island Dam December 13, 1899, has never been recovered. The big, strong box does not contain much money, but there are several valuable diamonds in it.

Ball for Sidney Cole, who killed Captain W. T. Terry in the Keystone State while she was loading near his home in the river. The ball April 1 was fixed at $10,000. He has not secured it yet, and is still at Parkersburg.
